LAND USE LEADERSHIP ALLIANCE
TRAINING PROGRAM

Meeting Fair & Affordable Housing Needs

Advanced training on planning, financing, zoning, and public conversation on fair and affordable housing

Join us for three full-day sessions in White Plains (9:00 am – 4:30 pm)

October 2nd, 23rd, and November 13th

Newly designed sessions include presentations from regional planners, developers, attorneys and public engagement specialists. Skilled facilitators will conduct breakout exercises and guide group discussions. Participants will tour new sites and meet developers and community reps. Curriculum includes inclusionary zoning in practice, financing affordable housing, and the impact of new developments in fair housing law & policies. Don’t miss the special session on building inclusive and sustainable communities.

Participants must register in advance for this free 3 day program. CLE credits for attorneys and Training Certificates for local board members. Light breakfast, lunch, and snacks provided. All sessions take place at the Pace Law School campus in White Plains at the Judicial Institute.

Register by September 14, 2015. Visit www.law.pace.edu/LULA or contact Ann Marie McCoy at 914-422-4262. For program information, contact Tiffany Zezula at 914-422-4034.

The Land Use Leadership Alliance (LULA) training program has graduated over 3,000 leaders and garnered over 100 formal resolutions of support from local governments and other entities. The program does not recommend any particular strategies, but instead teaches what has worked in other communities and how to identify and implement them. This Fair & Affordable Housing Program is a special collaboration between the Land Use Law Center and the Housing Action Council.
