

If you are thinking about Tax as an area of practice, you are preparing for internship or permanent placements in the following settings:

- Small, midsize, or large law firm
- Non-profit organizations, corporations, accounting firms and banks

You may do any of the following in practice:

- Advise clients on business and personal practices to comply with the law and plan for their futures
- Litigate disputes between taxpayers and governmental authorities

For the professional track in Tax,

You should take the following foundational courses as early as possible:

- Federal Income Taxation I (Basic)
- Federal Income Taxation II (Corporate)
- Federal Estate and Gift Taxation
- Tax Policy Seminar

You should take at least 1 of the following intermediate courses:

- Drafting Legal Documents
- Elder Law
- Estate Planning

You may wish to take several of the following related courses:

- Wills, Trusts and Estates
- Surrogate's Practice
- Corporations
- Family Law
- Nonprofit Organizations
- Accounting for Lawyers
- Administrative Law
- Business Planning

You should consult with the following faculty regarding this professional track: Crawford